Student Input

Basic

Name:

Address:

Telephone:

e-mail:

Parent's telephone:

Parent's e-mail:

Date of Birth:

High School:

Graduation Date:

GPA:

ACT score:

SAT score:

AP credits:

IB (International Baccalaureate) credits:

ICC credits when you graduate:

Are you currently employed?

     Hourly wage:

     # hours/wk:

Current path

Do you plan to attend Junior or Community College?

Initial College Choice

What College would be your first choice right now?

Why?

How certain are you of this choice (1 = not at all; 10 = definite)?

Initial Career Choice:

What career would be your first choice right now?

What is it that you like about this career?

How certain are you of this choice (1 = not at all; 10 = definite)?

Preferences

What are your passions?
(what would you give up a Saturday afternoon to do, or learn more about)

What are your interests?
(what would you read a non-fiction book about, or do internet research on)

What are your gifts or talents?

What are your favorite subjects or classes and why?

What are your least favorite subjects or classes and why?

What classes, or subjects do you find to be "easy", or seem to come naturally to you?

What classes, or subjects seem to be a struggle no matter how much effort you put into them?

What types of things in everyday life do you find fascinating?

What are your hobbies?

Which do you prefer, solving problems with definite answers like Math, or exploring abstract concepts like Philosophy?

Do you prefer to solve a problem from scratch, or evaluate options already given to you?

Do you enjoy debating and comparing issues?

Social Skills

Do you enjoy interacting with, and being around others?

Do you enjoy doing things as a group, or do you prefer to work on things by yourself?

Do you enjoy being the "leader" of the group, or do you prefer to follow when others lead?

Do you seek to have others look up to you and recognize your accomplishments, or are the results of your efforts sufficient for you, even if nobody notices?

Do you find joy in helping people even if you don't receive credit, or even money for it?

When conflicts arise in your group, are you usually the one involved in the conflict, or are you the peacemaker?

Work Environment

Do you have any specialized work interests (pilot, medicine, music, ministry, etc)?

Do you enjoy working with your hands and/or fixing things?

Would you rather do the work yourself, or figure out ways for others to get the job done?

Would you prefer to work mostly indoors or outdoors?

Would you prefer to work in an office around others, or at home by yourself?

Do you respond well to pressure?

Do you respond well to tight deadlines?

Do you prefer working on a definite timeline, or be given an open-ended assignment?

Do you consider yourself good at making snap decisions, or thoroughly analyzing options?

Do you enjoy having responsibility?

Do you more favor giving, or receiving orders?

Is it important for you to see the results of your labor, or are you OK with "planting a seed" which might take years to develop?

Is it important is it for you to receive compliments and praise, or is the work itself its own reward?

How well do you respond to criticism?

Do you enjoy public speaking?

Do you enjoy detailed work, or do you prefer working on the "big picture"?

Would you prefer creating something from scratch,
Or would you rather improve something that already exists?

Do you consider yourself to be creative (find new or unique ways to approach a problem) or do you prefer to work from a checklist?

How do you respond to others telling you what you should or must do?

Do you prefer to have a detailed list to follow, or just be given general guidelines and you figure things out?

Do you enjoy researching solutions, or do you prefer to be given a task whose path is already identified?

Are you a "details person" who wants to get heavily involved in every aspect of a problem and solution, or are you more interested in the result?

Do you think you would you enjoy working with customers or clients (even those who get angry or critical), or would you prefer to be in "the back room"?

Would you prefer a job with rigid, or flexible hours (are you self-motivated)?

Which makes you happier, the quantity (how MUCH you get done), or the quality (one piece, but impeccably done)?

Would you like a job which requires a significant amount of overnight travel, or be home every night?

Would you prefer to work for a large corporation with lots of people and departments, or a smaller company?

Assuming you will earn enough to support yourself and your family, how important is the ability to make LOTS of money if it means being away from your family?

Are you satisfied when you do a good job, even if you don't receive praise?

Do you like to be the person who is out front, or do you prefer to work in the background?

If you had enough money that you didn't have to work, how would you spend your time?

College Choice and Environment

Which would you prefer:
- Living on campus
- Living at home and commuting to school (like ISU or Bradley)
- Living at home and attending school exclusively online?

Would you prefer to live in a dorm, or live at home?

Would you prefer to stay close to home (less than a 2 hour drive), or live further away?

Regarding the enrollment at the school do you prefer:
- large (>15,000)
- medium (5,000 to 15,000)
- small school (<5,000)

Regarding the size of the school campus, do you prefer:
- large campus (like Univ of Illinois)
- medium sized campus (like Western Illinois),
- small campus (like Bradley or Eureka)

Regarding the school environment and location would you prefer
- urban (Chicago)
- suburban (Naperville)
- college town (Urbana)
- rural (Macomb)

How important is the school's academic reputation to you (1 = not important; 10 = everything)?

What extracurricular activities are important to you:
- clubs
- intramural sports
- well-known sports teams
- Christian organizations)?

How important is knowing, and working with your professor (small student-faculty ratio)?

Do you have a preference regarding the political nature of the school (liberal/conservative)?

Would you prefer attending a Christian School (like Cedarville), or are you OK with a non-Christian school with strong Christian organizations on campus?

Do you have a preference of public versus private school?
(typically private schools are smaller, more personal, and more expensive)